New console and recorder interfaces are always being added to our list of Studio Kit 96. If there is an interface you require that is not listed, please inquire. All Studio Kit 96 are based on our PP-96-2 patch bay, a 96 point (2 x 48) TT / Bantam patch bay, plus an assortment of pre-built 10 foot Project Patch interconnect cables and normalizing jumpers. Studio kits with different cable lengths, 25 foot and/or custom lengths, are readily available, check with us for pricing. The Basic System includes all cables required to connect all basic console functions, this will vary from console to console. Please request Basic System Drawings for exact configuration detail. The Recorder Systems includes a patch bay(s) plus the necessary cables to connect to the requested recorders, plus the connections to the console using 1/4" TRS jacks, other connector types are also available. The maximum number of normalized channels a single patch bay can accommodate is 48 (24 Inputs and 24 Outputs) Additional patch bay(s) and wiring to serve other external signal sources/processing equipment can easily be accommodated using Project Patch patch bays and pre-built cables. We will also be happy to assemble custom cables / harnesses or simply offer our 2ch, 4ch and 8ch Project Patch cable and a wide range of connectors, loose or in bulk, for you to assemble your own. Contact us for pricing

Custom Kits:

We will be happy to help develop a custom Studio Kit 96 for you, all we ask is that you complete a Studio Kit Configuration

Worksheet(s) - can be downloaded from our website or faxed to you upon request - please make sure to include any special information (inclusive of cable lengths, connector types, pin-out preference and/or any specific connection you require) before returning the Worksheet(s) to us for pricing and delivery. Custom kit orders require a 50% deposit with balance due prior to shipment.
